

Auditorium

This once 17th century chapel has been converted into a modern multi – purpose auditorium.

(View from Stage.)

(View from Balcony.)

The auditorium is used for large conferences, concerts, banquet dinners... etc. The seats are retractable and can left out or put away depending on our clients' needs. Past events have included a lecture by the poet and 1995 Nobel Prize winner for Literature, Prof. Seamus Heaney and a concert by Irish singer/songwriter Liam Ó Maonlaí.

Capacity for Conferences

U-shape	Classroom	Theatre
Up to 42 People	Up to 84 People	Up to 208 People

(Pictured is our Auditorium in use for a Conference)

This room is fully equipped with a projector, screen, audio visual equipment, translation booths and internet access.

Capacity for Concerts

(Pictured is our Auditorium set up for a Concert)

The auditorium can seat a maximum of 223 people for concerts or similar events.

(Pictured is our Auditorium set up for a Concert)

Tribune (retractable seats): 168 people

Front Seating Area: 40 people

Balcony: 15 people